Introduction to F. Scott Fitzgerald and The St. Paul Stories of F. Scott Fitzgerald, July 30- Aug 20

Playful, lyrical, and ironic, F. Scott Fitzgerald (1896-1940) is the most refreshingly sophisticated and slyly humorous of Minnesota's great twentieth century writers. As an Irish-American cash-strapped devotee to the charisma of wealth, he employed his ambiguous status to paint rich descriptions of his St. Paul roots and upbringing.
